Reopening Guidance for Businesses

As California reopens businesses as part of the Resilience Roadmap, every business needs to take steps to reduce the risk of COVID-19 and create a safer environment for workers and customers.

On Danville's website, <https://www.danville.ca.gov/758/Small-Business-Resources>, you will find a Back to Business Toolkit, that includes links to statewide guidance for businesses to follow, upon reopening per county health rules.

Businesses may use effective alternative or innovative methods to build upon the guidelines. Review the guidelines relevant to your workplace, prepare a plan based on the guidance for your industry, and put it into action. When complete, you can post the industry-specific checklist in your workplace for customers.

Before reopening, all businesses MUST:

1. Perform a detailed risk assessment and implement a site-specific protection plan
2. Train employees on how to limit the spread of COVID-19, including how to screen themselves for symptoms and stay home if they have them
3. Implement individual control measures and screenings
4. Implement disinfecting protocols
5. Implement physical distancing guidelines

We hope this information helps you develop a safe reopening process for your employees and customers. Many people are hesitant to venture out after the Shelter in Place is lifted, which is why it is so important businesses demonstrate they have taken necessary precautions to keep their customers safe and to share their protocol with them.
